GREAT START TO THE SCHOOL YEAR!

It is hard to believe summer is over and we are back in the swing of things here in Edison. We've had a great start to our school year here! Our Unified Arts teachers have certainly been busy providing creative and exciting activities for your students each day. Scroll down to meet our staff and see some students in action at Edison!

Unified Arts:

- Most students will have 2 UA classes each day
- Check your child's Powerschool schedule to see what they have this semester
- Reach out to your child's UA teacher any time if you have questions or concerns
- Please plan to meet us in the cafe at Open House on October 13th!
- Each newsletter will feature Students of the Month - scroll below!!

As always, thank you for choosing EDISON!

In Eagle Pride, Luke Henderson

BUCKET DRUMMING IN THE PAC!

Ms. Corsetti, our newest teacher in the music department, had her 8th grade applied music students learning a drum cadence in the Performing Arts Center (PAC). Students then got into small groups where they took on different roles and performed for their peers!
